1923 Buick Still Going Strong, After Doing 270,000 Miles.

Out of the Canadian Northwest there came recently a McLaughlin Buick sedan with a mileage of 270,000 miles, and still going strong. It is a 1923 seven passenger model, owned by J C Hart, and save for new pistons and pins installed in 1927, the car is just as it was the day it left the factory to pile up the immense mileage of something more than eleven times around the earth at the equator. Hart's territory includes Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Sometimes Hart carries as much as 1400 pounds of tools and threshing machine parts in the rear compartment. The car has the original body and roof covering, fenders, rims, wheels. Even the clock on the instrument panel is still going well. "I expect to drive my 1923 McLaughlin Buick two more years, to make it an even ten; and then I'll buy a new McLaughlin Buick."

Gordon Willie Passes Away.

Word reached Stony Monday of the death at Kamloops of Mr Gordon Willie (son of Mr and Mrs John A Willie) in his 28th year.

Deceased, who had been ailing since Autumn, when he had to relinquish his position as teacher at the Muir Lake school, suffering with heart trouble.

About a month ago Gordon decided to go to Kamloops, where an uncle resides. Last week he had a relapse, and Mrs Willie left for Kamloops. Later, his father went to Kamloops, and arrived there a few hours before his son passed away.

Deceased was born on the farm at Glory Hills, and moved to Stony with his parents about ten years ago. He attended the local high school, and on graduating from grade eleven he attended Camrose Normal. On leaving there, he was appointed the teacher at Muir Lake school, which institution of learning he had attended in his youth.

Gordon was of a quiet, amiable disposition, and had a host of friends, particularly among those with whom he had attended school.

The funeral takes place this afternoon.

Tomorrow Night's Bouts

Holborn Hall should be filled to capacity tomorrow (Friday) evening, when the Athletic Club runs off a series of boxing bouts, ending with a ten round bout between Paul Schroder, a local man, and Benny Tait of Edmonton. The half dozen preliminary bouts between the good local mitt-handlers are sure to prove very interesting.

A Note of Appreciation.

The Sun Editor appreciates very much the fine line of news which is being sent in each week by its district correspondents, as well as by its occasional correspondents. Running a newspaper is not such a bad thing after all, when we can get the assistance from correspondents that we have been so fortunate in obtaining.

Birth.

The home of Rev H Kuring and Mrs Kuring, at Blueberry, was gladdened by the arrival of a baby boy on Wednesday, April 6th, tipping the scales at 11 pounds. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Starting on May 4th, the places of business in Stony Plain will close at 1 p.m. on Wednesdays.

BABY FRETFUL, RESTLESS?

Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and seems unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation. To get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Castoria, you know, is made specially for children's delicate needs. It is a pure vegetable preparation; contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is as effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxed comfort and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

It was reported Pope Pius probably would inaugurate the Eucharistic Congress at Dublin next June with a broadcast message.

The world's crop of winter wheat is only two per cent. smaller than last year, judging by reports from 15 countries.

Dr. O. T. Avery, New York, who discovered a means of killing the pneumonia germ by dissolving its protective covering has been awarded $1,500 by the American College of Physicians.

The motion of H. C. Nixon, Progressive leader, asking the Federal Government not to appoint a lieutenant-governor for Ontario for one year was voted down by the provincial legislature.

Russia is ranked by the Economic Review of the Soviet Union, published by the Amtorg Trading Corporation, as second only to the United States in volume of industrial output and national income.

Great Britain intends to proceed without deviation with its program for India, Sir Samuel Hoare told the House of Commons, and will not be deflected from it "by threats of force or sudden alarms."

The Family Physician.—The good doctor is always worth his fee. But it is not always possible to get a doctor just when you want him. In such cases, common sense suggests the use of reliable home remedies, such as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is wonderfully effective in easing inflammatory pains and healing cuts, scratches, bruises and sprains. The presence of this remedy in the family medicine chest saves many a fee.

A Difficult Test

Candidates for the post of announcer in one American broadcasting company had to pass a test, one phrase of which is "The seething sea ceaseth, and thus the seething sea suffeth us." Only ten of the 2,500 tested in the last two years received appointments.

Feverish?

"My baby's cheeks and hands were so hot," writes Mr. Bernard Breen, Enterprise, Ont. "I was frightened. I gave him a Baby's Own Tablet at noon and by after supper he was all better." Effective for colds, colic, teething. Absolutely safe. See certificate in each 25c package. 75¢

Not From Brazil

Apparently Nuts Imported By Canada Came Principally From France, Spain and China

Nuts of all kinds imported into Canada in the fiscal year ended March 31, 1931, were valued at $3,986,144. Shelled walnuts comprised the principal item, totalling 4,806,062 pounds valued at $1,003,151. Of this total two and a half million pounds were brought in from China and nearly two million pounds from France. The next most valuable import was of green peanuts, shelled and unshelled, amounting to 25,323,421 pounds valued at $971,216. These came chiefly from China, imports in the last fiscal year totalling 21,091,728 pounds valued at $729,108. Spain furnishes most of the almond nuts imported. Out of a total of almonds, not shelled, imported in the last fiscal year amounting to 931,556 pounds valued at $97,900, Spain supplied $29,928 valued at $84,844; and out of a total of 1,732,343 pounds of shelled almonds valued at $441,131, Spain supplied 1,501,327 pounds valued at $364,554.

GOOD LOOKING HOME WEAR HELPS IMMENSELY MAKE KITCHEN CHORES EASY

Every woman knows she can't have too many home ensembles that will tub and tub, and always come up smiling.

And today's model is just lovely. The dress is suitable for the house, garden, porch, marketing, etc. And incidentally, it's decidedly slimming to the heavier build. It has a very becoming slimming neckline. Then there is the diagonal bias seaming that reduces bulk. Inverted plaits give a graceful width and flare to the hem.

And isn't the one-piece apron attractive? And it won't slip off the shoulders either, for the suspender straps are useful besides being modish.

Design No. 910 includes the dress and the apron in sizes 10, 18, 20 years, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust. Size 38 requires 3 1/2 yards of 35-inch material with 1 1/2 yards of 35-inch contrasting.

Price of pattern 25 cents in stamps or coin (check is preferred). Wrap coin carefully.

Lost Ugly Fat Her Husband says she Looks Five Years Younger!

There is a certain weight at which every woman looks her loveliest—not skinny, underweight, nor pendulous overweight, but normal weight. We find artists, doctors, theatrical producers (and husbands!) all agreed upon this point. Read what this woman of 29 says about it:—

"Having heard from a friend of mine that she had lost considerable weight since taking Kruschen Salts, I started using them in July last, when I weighed 177 lbs. I have lost weight steadily since then, and am now 130 lbs.—my normal weight. Moreover, I feel brighter and more energetic in every way. My age is 29. My husband is a very severe critic. He says I look five years younger. There is no other reason for my loss of weight except Kruschen, as I do not take any particular diet."—Mrs. S. H.

Taken every morning, Kruschen effects a perfectly natural clearance of undigested food and waste, and all excessive water waste, etc. Unless this wastage is regularly expelled, Nature will eventually slough it up out of the way in the form of ugly fat.

Progress in Africa

People Take Quickly To New Ideas For Advancement

Do not let us delude ourselves into thinking that the African will not in time demand his share of self-government as the Indian has done. Those who knew Africa in her old, untouched days are astonished at the rapidity with which new ideas are taking root, and every new school and road and trading store promotes more change. The very fact that the African starts from a lower level of culture than the Indian is capable of accentuating the rapidity and gravity of the change. He has no load of ancient civilization round his neck, no serious religious disputes, no excess of population fixed in the ruts of old habits and ingrained superstitions. The difference between his level and that of the alien whites is so great that he is inclined, once he makes the plunge, to abandon all his own distinctive ideas and to aim directly at a Europeanized culture.

Recipes For This Week

HOW SIN BEGINS

Golden Text: "Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation."—Matthew 26:41.

Lesson: Genesis 2:8 to 3:24.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 1.

Explanation and Comments

The Garden Of Eden, 2:8-15.—And Jehovah planted a garden eastward, in Eden, we read. With the trees in the garden that were to provide food were two mysterious trees of good and evil, that of the other, immortal life. In this garden Adam and Eve were put to care for it.

The Obstacles Required, 2:16, 17.—The fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil they were forbidden to eat. Through it was to come the knowledge of sin and its consequences as well. If that command were disobeyed, then they would surely die.

"In all holy life there must be a forbidden tree. But all limitations ordained of God are appointed to be the ministers of our strength. If we observe them they do not belittle us; they exalt us. The tempter would mislead us if he thought that he represented the freedom of sin, and that the bursting of our barriers is the enlargement of our strength. It is fatal delusion. A broken moral law always means a broken and shriveled life; the wages of sin is death; and the wages begin to be paid at once. Every time we sin death is at work."—J. H. Jowett.

The Temptation, 3:1-5.—The serpent here in Genesis is the power of evil personified; it is Milton, not Genesis, that terms the serpent Satan. The tempter is called by the Jews "the old serpent." Temptation to sin comes from without human nature, but the capacity for sin is within. Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field, "the first imp of fraud," as Milton calls him. To the woman he said, "Yea (indeed), truly I have said, Yea, thou shalt not eat of any tree of the garden?" The interrogative sentence is exclamatory and is designed to arouse distrust of God. "Ay, and so God has said, etc." is one translation. The range of the prohibition is purposely exaggerated in order to provoke inquiry and criticism.

The order of words in Eve's answer brings out the thought that she represents the serpent's subtle meaning; they could eat of the fruit of any tree save that in the midst of the garden, that tree of knowledge of good and evil. That it was an apple tree is an idea said to have come from the Romans. The word used in the "Vulgate" for fruit, "fructum," was rendered "pomum" by some transcribers, a word which means fruit and also apple. The Greeks understood it to be a fig tree. Death would be the penalty for eating or even touching that special fruit. Eve seems to have expected death would immediately follow its eating.

"Ye shall not surely die," returned the serpent. Not to save you from death, but to prevent your being like him, has God forbidden you to partake of this fruit: "Ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil." The serpent's wily words impute an unworthy motive to Jehovah, and arouse loyalty to His perfect goodness; they appeal to Eve's curiosity and desire for knowledge and power, and are almost a dare.

The Disobedience, 2:6, 7.—Eve looked longingly at the forbidden fruit, dallied with temptation. She saw that it was good for food, a delight to the eyes, and had the power to make one wise; there was an appeal to appetite, to the sense of beauty, and to intellect. The desire to become like God overcame the fear of his displeasure. She yielded to the temptation and partook of the fruit.

Eve gave the fruit to her husband and he ate also. "Before this temptation the woman fell, and the man was immediately involved in her fall—another fine truth," says Hodge the key of his destiny."—J. E. McFadyen.

Hardly Worth Speaking About

If you have a good imagination, try and imagine what the newly discovered neutron, a part of an atom and of great importance to science, looks like. Prof. Lachlan Gilchrist of the physics department of the University of Toronto, told the Royal Astronomical Society its weight is represented by the 540th part of a million-million-millionth part of a gramme, and a gramme is about 2,600th part of an ounce.

Heavy Taxation

Detroit Plans To Refund Debts Totalling $51,000,000

Declaring it the only way the life savings and property of many of Detroit's citizens can be saved, Mayor Frank Murphy announced recently that he would seek the co-operation of the city's bankers-creditors in a refunding of some $51,000,000 in interest and maturity charges due this year.

If the plan is agreed upon, the mayor said, it will mean a substantial reduction in the city's $74,000,000 tax levy for 1932. If it fails, he said, an increase in the tax rate of nearly $3 for each $1,000 valuation is imminent. The property tax rate for the current fiscal year is $22.63 for $1,000 valuation.

No more dusting for me!

at least not with old-fashioned dust cloths. I've found a better way.

Thousands of Canadian women know that her "better way" is the famous WAXER PAPER. Made from clean rags and soft paper pulp scientifically treated with high-grade furniture polish, it dusts as it cleans—as it polishes.

Wonder Paper is changing the old-established order of house-cleaning. One neat package of it appeals more to women than yards of old rags that spread dust and constantly need washing to be sanitary.

You get twenty-five sheets of Wonder Paper for a quarter. Simply crumple a sheet into a soft wad, go over the furniture, woodwork, and the floors. The results are a delight. In half the time and with half the effort, you get a necessary task done far more satisfactorily.

And when you're through, throw away the piece of Wonder Paper. No shaking out, or washing, or dusting. Certainly you ought to try Wonder Paper.

MANITOBA WILL OFFER A NEW BOND ISSUE SOON

Winnipeg, Man.—As soon as the bill now being rushed through the Manitoba legislature is passed, the province of Manitoba will offer a $5,000,000 bond issue. It is expected the issue will be sold in Canada and will be payable in Canadian funds.

The legislature suspended the rules to give first reading to the bill when it was introduced without notice by Premier John Bracken, Wednesday, March 30. Vigorous objection was voiced by the Labor members of the House to the proposed loan, and this group blocked second reading of the bill by refusing the necessary unanimous consent to a further suspension of the rules.

The money to be raised will be used to pay off debts created for such public services as unemployment relief, trans-Canada Highway and the new tuberculosis sanatorium, Premier Bracken stated. Maturities to be met are: $1,000,000 due in New York, April 15; $1,627,000 due in New York, May 1; $320,000 due in Winnipeg, May 15; and $1,900,000 in treasury bills issued to meet advances by the banks to the provincial savings office.

During the summer the government will have to meet the bond debt of the Farm Loans Association amounting to $500,000, Mr. Bracken said. Apart from this there would be no other obligation of consequence until December when an issue of $6,000,000 fell due. He said the $5,000,000 will get immediate maturities cleared up in a few weeks the way will be paved for taking care of the December issue.

John Queen, Labor leader, and William Ivens, another laborite, contended another bond issue was only adding to the financial difficulty and piling up interest obligations. Instead the government should make a "courageous attempt to change the monetary system."

The choice lay between the province defaulting or paying its debts, said the Premier. Labor members were not dealing with realities. The House had no intention of changing the monetary system and the government had no intention of defaulting.

Air Service For Alberta

Express Plane Will Operate Between Calgary and Edmonton May 1, Regina, Sask.—Commencing May 1, a passenger and express service by aeroplane will be operated between Calgary and Edmonton by the Canadian Airways Company, western division.

Announcements to this effect was made at Moose Jaw by Captain Roy Brown, superintendent of the western section. No such service has been planned for the rest of the prairies where the government air mail service ceased March 31.

Two Fokker F-4 planes, capable of carrying eight passengers each, will be operated with Pilots Jarvis and Ashton in charge.

The Calgary-Edmonton service is being undertaken in order to provide transportation to the Great Bear district in northern Alberta.

Large Order For Tea

Russia Arranges Year's Credit Basis With India Planters

Colombo.—Soviet Russia had placed an order with India tea planters for 5,000,000 pounds of Indian and Ceylon tea. The transaction is said to be on a year's credit basis, at 9 per cent. interest, Russia having the privilege of taking the tea as and when it wishes at the prevailing market price. Russia is the greatest consumer of tea in the world, but produces only a fraction of her needs.

South African Earthquake

Johannesburg, Union of South Africa.—One of the most severe earthquakes ever recorded here set the buildings a-tremble in the centre of the city today and caused a heavy rock slip in the shaft of the Robinson deep mine. One of the seismographs at the observatory was put out of action. There were no casualties here.

Ocean Fares Slashed

Reduction Is Announced In Trans-Atlantic Accommodation

London, England.—Trans-Atlantic passenger rates have been slashed 15 per cent. or more by a group of Great Britain's largest marine companies, the White Star and Cunard Line, while most of the shipping firms of Europe, Canada and the United States were conferring on rate cut projects in Brussels.

The White Star was the first to announce a slash. All classes of accommodation on its liners will be affected by the cut which in general eliminates the 15 per cent. surcharge imposed when Great Britain suspended the gold standard.

Within a few hours officials of the Cunard, Anchor and Anchor-Donaldson lines announced fares would be reduced between Europe and Canada. First class, cabin class and tourist class minimum rates will be slashed 20 per cent. and third class ocean rates reduced 10 per cent. by all three lines.

The White Star announcement said that the usual increases in fare just before the summer tourist season opens will not be put into effect this year.

Opposes Prison Term Cuts

B.C. Attorney-General Says Desperados Should Serve Full Time

Victoria, B.C.—Strong condemnation of the practice of federal authorities releasing from penitentiary convicted desperados before the expiration of their terms, without reference to the province in which prisoners were committed to prison, was voiced by R. H. Pooley, Attorney-General in the British Columbia legislature.

Referring to recent crimes of William Bagley, bank robber, gunman and fugitive from justice, Mr. Pooley said that of five men convicted and released after serving part of their sentences for the robbery of a bank in Nanaimo several years ago, one had since been hanged, two others were now in police lists in the United States and Bagley was now a fugitive from justice after the Harrison Hotel Springs hotel robbery last year and the Okalla jail break in January.

Widen Beauharnois Inquiry

Scope Of Investigation May Be Governed By Necessity

Ottawa, Ont.—"If the committee reports it necessary to a complete inquiry as to any senators affected, or in justice to any public man whose honor is impugned in the course of the evidence," the scope of the investigation committee on Beauharnois will be widened. This was the reply given by Senator Arthur Meighen, government leader in the Upper House, to a question asked by Senator Hardy.

The necessity for broadening the committee's powers in order to hear G. Howard Ferguson, Canadian High Commissioner, was suggested by Senator Hardy.

Plane Crashes In Desert

Bagdad, Iraq.—Three passengers in a French airplane flying from Damascus to Bagdad were reported to have been killed when the plane crashed in the desert. One of them was said to be Colonel De Reynier, of Switzerland, head of the League of Nations Commission appointed to adjust the Iraq-Syrian frontier.

INTRODUCES BILL

Sir William Davison, prominent member of the British House of Commons, who has again introduced a Bill in the Mother Parliament to legalize lotteries. His effort last year to get lotteries approved for hospitals failed.

Criticizes Pension System

Sir Arthur Currie Says Matter Still In Unsatisfactory State

Winnipeg, Man.—"It is a matter of great concern to all of us that, 14 years after the termination of the war, the matter of pensions is still in an unsatisfactory state," writes Sir Arthur Currie, commander of the Canadian corps during the war, in his message to the annual convention of the Manitoba command, Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League, which opened here Wednesday, March 30.

"The principal adjustment necessary lies in the relationship between the appeal board and the pension tribunals," Sir Arthur writes. By this time there ought to be general agreement on the interpretation of the law, and a method must be found whereby the correct interpretation of the law can be made by all bodies whose responsibility it is to make decisions. The present weakness is something which only the government of this country can remove. If the suggestion made by the veterans' organization is not workable, then the government must find something that is."

New C.N.R. Director

William J. Christie Of Winnipeg Receives Appointment

Ottawa, Ont.—R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals, has announced the appointment of William J. Christie, of Winnipeg, as a director of the Canadian National Railways. Mr. Christie is one of the most prominent business men in Winnipeg. He is head of W. J. Christie, and a director of many other companies.

Mr. Christie goes on the board of the Canadian National Railways in place of S. E. Richards, who was recently elevated to the bench.

No Australian Butter

Ottawa, Ontario.—Word received by Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, from Australia, gave the assurance that no butter from that country would be shipped to Canada at present. A report had been in circulation that a large consignment of butter was to leave Australia for Canada and this had caused considerable anxiety among the dairy interests.

Regiment Publishes War History

Official History Of 44th Battalion Is Vivid Story Of "Six Thousand Canadian Men"

Winnipeg, Man.—On April 9th (Vimy Night) when the members of the Forty-Fourth Battalion Association fore-gather for their annual reunion in Winnipeg, the official history of the unit will be distributed.

The writing of an official history of the experiences of a Canadian battalion in the Great War is a vast project. For more than three years committees have labored devotedly in the collection of facts, photos and finances to produce a history worthy of the 44th Battalion's war record. The completed work is now available for 48 cents, their next of kin, and the general public.

Entitled "Six Thousand Canadian Men" and dedicated to the twelve hundred comrades "who went up the line with us, and did not come back," the 44th history is a book of some 400 pages. It outlines the experience of these men who, tackling a new job, mastered the hard lessons of the grim school of war and built up a unit, rated by no less an authority than Baron Byng as "one of the best in the Canadian Corps."

Checking the historical accuracy of the factual matter, Col. Duguid of the Records Office, Ottawa, pronounced the work "a good history, vivid and interesting throughout."

Committed For Trial

Veregin, Who Faces Four Charges, Released On Bail

Yorkton, Sask.—Peter Veregin was committed for trial on three charges of perjury and released on bail, set at $12,000, when he appeared in court here before Magistrate A. McDonald. When the Doukhobor leader appears in court of king's bench here in May he will have to answer four charges, three of perjury and one of tampering with witnesses.

The perjury charges are alleged to have been committed while Veregin was giving evidence at the preliminary hearing of George Chutskoff, who was charged by the Doukhobor leader with having committed perjury in the Yorkton Court House last November.

Cattle Breeders' Association

Calgary, Alta.—James Turner, of Carroll, Man., was elected president of the Canadian Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association in annual convention here. He succeeded W. F. Warren of Belbeck, Sask. J. A. Brown, of Forrest, Ont., was chosen vice-president. Directors elected included John Brown and T. A. Edwards, both of Watford, Ont.; H. Leader, Burnside, Man.; W. B. Lyon, Dendron, Sask.; S. Henderson, LaCombe, Alta., and R. R. Buchanan, Pincher Creek, Alta.

Claims Small Islands

Manila.—Claim to 16 small islands in the Sea of Sulu near British North Borneo has been filed with the British and United States governments. It was revealed by the Princess Dayang, sister of the Sultan of Sulu.

U.S. Postage Raised

Washington, D.C.—The first class postage rate has been increased from two to three cents for a period of two years by the United States House of Representatives. The increase is expected to yield $135,000,000.

NO LOSS FROM ALBERTA POOL GUARANTEES

Edmonton, Alberta.—All danger of loss to the province over its wheat pool guarantees totalling $5,536,707 will be removed in three or four years, providing operations of the pool continue as successful as during the present crop season, said Premier J. B. Brownlee in the Alberta legislature.

Referring to operations on the open market this year, the premier said Alberta wheat pool marketings have now passed the 35,000,000 bushel mark and the record handlings in history of the Alberta Co-Operative was 37,000,000 bushels.

After some criticism had been expressed by D. M. Duggan, Conservative leader, and W. R. Howson, Liberal, Edmonton, to which the premier replied, the bills validating agreements between Alberta and the banks and the wheat pool concerning the guarantees were given second reading. The bills ratify settlements authorized at the last session.

All amendments to raise the exemptions under the proposed provincial income tax were defeated during committee, and the exemptions will stand at $750 for single persons and 1,500 for married persons.

Tells Of Plots

Anti-Soviet Conspiracies Outside Of Russian Border

Moscow, Russia.—Moscow newspapers gave prominent place to a despatch from Paris to the Tass News agency, quoting the Communist newspaper "Humanite" as saying far-reaching activities by Russian "white guards" were underway throughout Europe, including plots against the life of Joseph Stalin and other anti-Soviet conspiracies outside the Russian border.

Among the latter, the despatches said, was a proposal to assassinate Maxim Gorki, Russian author, in Italy, and Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet foreign commissar, in Germany.

Pioneer Sheepman Dies

E. Harker Came To Alberta Thirty-Three Years Ago

Lethbridge, Alta.—Ephraim Harker, 78, one of Western Canada's earliest sheepmen, died at his home in Cardston, March 29. He arrived in Cardston in 1889 from Utah.

He was associated in sheep ranching with his brother, Levi Harker of Magrath, one of the organizers of the Canadian Co-Operative Wool Growers' Association.

Sees the Bright Side

New York.—Rather optimistic about the way the world is warring, particularly that part of it which the British occupy, Sir Campbell Stuart, a director of "The Times," of London, England, arrived here from Canada to pass a few days in the United States before sailing homeward. A native of the Dominion, Sir Campbell, in the last year of the Great War, was deputy director of British propaganda in enemy countries under the late Lord Northcliffe.

Damage From Icebergs

Washington, D.C.—The Arctic which last year failed to send icebergs south into the international steamer lanes for the first time in memory, this year is pushing the menacing ice south earlier than usual. The coastguard has ordered resumption of the international ice patrol.

Vancouver, B.C.—Compared with an ancient Greek coin the Canadian nickel was "infermally" ugly, Arthur Lamer, A.R.C.A., Toronto, said addressing the Women's Canadian Club.

Planes Return Flight

London, Eng.—J. A. Mollison, who flew to Cape Town, South Africa, in record time, is understood to be planning a record-breaking return flight.

Of 15,000 women and girls reported "missing" in England last year, less than 1,500 remained unaccounted for more than two weeks.

"Roads in Country Very Muddy."

"Monday's official advice to motorists planning country trips is 'don't,' according to J. A. McNeil, secretary of the Alberta Motor association.

"All country roads are in terrible condition," he stated. "The Calgary trail is open, but other roads are practically impassable. Anyone attempting a trip will need a set of chains, a shovel, a long stout tow-rope and a lot of luck," he added.

More C. N. R. Cuts?

"There are always one or two drops left in the lemon no matter how hard you squeeze," Sir Henry Thornton, Pres. of C. N. Railway, replied recently when asked as to the possibility of another salary cut or general economies. "We shall squeeze as circumstances may require," he added.

The Flivver Won.

It has happened at last—the impossible. A motor car won an argument with a passenger train at a railroad crossing near Kalamazoo, Mich., last week. But the owner of the car was not there to enjoy it. He left his stalled car on the track and went for help; while he was gone the driverless car won the battle and wrecked the train.

Specially Arranged Tours.

Something new in trans-Canada holidays, in which the railway, auto and steamship will be combined in pleasing variety, is offered for the coming summer thru two special tours now being arranged by Canadian National Rys, for July and August. Those who take part in these tours will traverse over 8000 miles of Canadian territory, 6000 miles by train, 1500 miles by steamer on the Great Lakes and Pacific coast, and over 500 miles by motor car in Rockies and the principal cities visited.

All the larger cities on the prairies will be included in the itinerary together with a triangle trip by steamer between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle, with two days on the inland seas between Vancouver and Prince Rupert.

E. M. Ward Finds Wonderful Pick-Me-Up in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Brings Wonderful Vitality.

I take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I find them a wonderful pick-me-up."

So writes E. M. Ward, Saskatoon, Sask., who further states: "I would recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all sufferers from that rundown, listless feeling. I have taken the Pills on many occasions, and they seem to tone up my blood wonderfully. I have been anemic for years, and find that, when I get run down, after taking several boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the color comes back to my cheeks and I have wonderful vitality."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills rebuild health by creating new blood and increasing the red blood cells which restore the wasted tissues and revitalize the exhausted system. They remove the cause of rundown or nervous conditions. Try them. At your drugist's. 50c a package. 271

THE HOUSE OF DREAMS-COME-TRUE

MARGARET FIEDLER

Author of "The Splendid Folly," "The Hermit of Far West," "Hodder & Stoughton, Ltd., London."

Her voice wavered uncertainly. The realization of his intent had come upon her so unexpectedly, rousing her from her placid unconsciousness, that she felt stunned—nervously unready to deal with the situation. She struggled a little, instinctively, but he only laughed down at her, a ring of triumphant triumph in his voice, holding her effortlessly, with all the ease of his immense strength.

"It's no good, Jean. You've got to hear me out. I've waited long enough." He paused, then drew a deep breath. "I love you," he said slowly. "My God, how I love you!"

There was an element of wonder in his tones, and she felt the strong hands gripping her tremble a little. Then their clasp tightened and he drew her towards him.

"Say you love me," he demanded. "Say it!"

It was then Jean would not love. The imperious demand, infringing on that secret, inner claim of which she alone knew, rang into quick denial.

"But I don't! I don't love you!" Then, as she saw the blank look in his eyes, she went on hastily: "Oh, Geoffrey, I am so sorry, I never guessed—I never thought of your car-"

"You never guessed? Good God!" with a harsh laugh—"I should have thought I'd made it plain enough. Why, even that first day, on the river—I wanted you then. What do you suppose has brought me to Stople every day? Affection for Blaise Tormarin?"—cynically.

"I thought—I thought—"She cast about in her mind for an answer, then presented him with the simple truth. "I'm afraid I never thought about it at all. I just took your coming over for granted. I knew you and Judith were old friends and neighbors, so it seemed quite natural for you to be here often—just as Claire Latimer is."

Burke searched her face for a moment. He was thinking of the other women he had known—women who would never have remained blind to his meaning, who had, indeed, shown their willingness to come halfway—more than halfway—to meet him.

"I really believe that's true," he said at last, grudgingly. "But if it is, you're the most unconscious woman I've ever come across."

"Of course it's true," she replied simply. "I'm—I'm so sorry, Geoffrey. I like you far too much to have wished to hurt you."

"I don't want liking. I want your love. And I mean to have it. You may not have understood before, Jean, but you do now."

She drew herself away from him a little. "That doesn't make any difference, Geoffrey. I have no love to give you," she said quietly.

He shook his head. "I won't take no," he said doggedly. "You're the woman I want. And I mean to have you. . . . Don't you understand? It's no use fighting against me. You may say no, now; you may say no fifty times. But one day you'll say—yes."

Jean's slight frame tautened.

"You are mistaken," she said, in a chill, clear voice calculated to set immeasurable space between them. "I'm not a cave woman to be forced into marriage. Oh!—the ludicrous side of this imperious kind of wooing strikes her suddenly—"Don't be so absurd Geoffrey! You can't seize me by the hair and carry me off to your own particular hole in the rocks, you know." She began to laugh a little. "Let's just go on being good friends—and forget that this has ever happened."

She held out her hand, but he took no notice of the little friendly gesture. There was a red gleam in his eyes, a smouldering glow that needed but a breath to fan it into flame.

"You speak as if it were something that was over and done with," he said in a low, tense voice. "But it isn't. It is not shall be. I love you and want you, and I shall go on loving you and wanting you as long as I live. Jean—sweetest!"—his voice suddenly softened incredibly—"I'll try to be more gentle. But when a man loves as I do, he doesn't stop to choose his words." He stepped closer to her. "Oh! You little, little thing! Why, I could pick you up and carry you off to my cave with two fingers. Jean, when will you marry me?"

His big frame towered beside her. He paid no more attention to her dismissal of him than if she had not spoken, and she was conscious of an odd feeling of impotence.

"You don't seem to have understood me," she said forcing herself to speak composedly. "If I loved you, you'd have no need to 'carry me off to your cave. I'd come—gladly. But I don't love you, Geoffrey. And I shall never marry a man I don't love."

"You'll marry me," he returned stubbornly. "Do you think I'm going to give you up so easily? If you're my wife, you'll be my wife."

The two pairs of eyes met, a challenging defiance flashing between them. Jean shrugged her shoulders.

"I think you must be mad," she said contemptuously, and turned to leave him.

In the same instant his hands gripped her shoulders and he swung her round facing him again.

"Mad!" he exclaimed hoarsely. "As I am mad—mad for you. You little cold thing! Do you know what love is—man's love?"

She felt his arms close round her like a vice of steel, lifting her off her feet, so that she hung helpless in his embrace. For a moment his eyes burned down into hers—the hot flame of desire that blazed in them seeming almost to scorch her—the next, he had hidden his face against the warm white curve of her throat, where a little frightened pulse throbbed restlessly. Then, as though the touch of her snapped the last link of his self-control, his mouth sought hers, and he was kissing her savagely, crushing her soft, winning lips beneath his own. Her slender body swung helplessly as a reed in his strong grip, while the tide of his passion, like some fierce, untamable flood, swept over her resistlessly.

When at last he released her, she stood back from him, rocking a little instinctively he stretched out his hand to steady her.

"Don't . . . touch me!" she panted.

The words came driven, between clenched teeth, chockingly. Her face was milk-white and her eyes blazed at him out of his pallor. She felt as if her heart were beating in her throat, stifling her, and for a little space sheer physical stress held her silent. But she fought it back, asserting her will against her weakness.

"How dare you?" There was bitter anger in her still tones. "How dare you touch me—like that?"

With a swift movement she passed her handkerchief across her lips and then let it fall off the ground as though it were something unclean. He winced at the gesture; for a moment the passion died out of his face and a rueful look, almost of schoolboy shame, took its place.

"Do you feel like that about it?" he said, nodding towards the handkerchief.

"Just like that," she returned. "Do you think—if I had known—I would ever have risked being alone with you? But I thought we were friends—I never dreamed I couldn't trust you."

"Well, you can't," he said unsteadily. The sight of her slender, delicate figure and lovely, tilted face, with the scornful lips he had just kissed showing like a scarlet stain against its whiteness, sent the blood rioting through his veins once more. "You'll learn."

Her thoughts flew to Blaise. She would trust herself with him—now, at any time, always. But then, perhaps—the afterthought came like a knife-thrust—perhaps he did not care!

"A man who—loved me," she said dully, "would not do what you've just done."

"He would—sooner, or later. Unless his veins ran milk and water!" He drew a step nearer and stood staring down at her somberly. "Do you know what you're like, I wonder? With your great golden eyes and your maddening mouth and that little cleft in your white chin. . . . You're angry because I kissed you. I wonder I didn't do it before! I've wanted to, dozens of times. But I wanted your love more than a passing kiss. I've waited for that—waited all these weeks. And now you refuse it—you're not even understood that you're all earth and heaven to me. God! How blind you must have been!"

She was silent. Her anger was waning, giving place to a certain distressed comprehension of the mighty force which had suddenly broken bondage in the man beside her. Dimly, from her own knowledge of the yearning bred of the loved one's nearness, she envisaged what these last weeks must have meant to a man of Burke's temperament. Was it any wonder, when suddenly made to realize that the woman he loved not only did not love him in return, but had failed even to sense his love for her, that his stormy spirit had rebelled—sung off its shackles? An element of self-reproach tinged her thoughts. In a measure the fault had been hers; her self-absorption was to blame.

Little Helps For This Week

"Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary?"—Mark vi. 3.

A Person, Lord, those eighteen years to me; Not elsewhere I could so devoutly learn

That humble tasks are best, however I earn

For higher spheres where I may work more free.

Bliss were those patient, toiling years to Thee,

Thy secret kept within Thy lonely heart,

While Thou wast trained by daily skill of art

To build new worlds for human destiny.

Thy future was the Now. 'Twas from his height

Thine eye read meanings in the passing day

If Cross of Death cast shadows on Thy way

What sun was that so darkened in his light?

O Nazareth, out of these tolls there came,

That which we prize most dear,—a Brother's Name!

A. A. Lipscomb.

'Christ did not want higher occasions than the Father gave Him. The grand maxim of His mission was that the humblest spheres give the greatest weight and dignity to principles.

He was the good carpenter,—saving the world. Rightly viewed, there are no small occasions in this world, as in our haste we too often think. Great principles, principles sacred even to God, are at stake in every moment of life. God prescribes our duty; and it were wrong not to believe that

If we undertake God's real work, He will furnish us it, and give us pleasure in it.—Horace Bushnell.

Control Of Nerves

Living Nerves Can Be Switched Like Telegraph Nerves

Zoological proof that living nerves can be switched like telegraph wires was presented to the American Association of Anatomists meeting in New York.

If the nerve naturally controlling a muscle is destroyed, another nerve can be substituted by operation, and will operate the muscle very well.

These switches have been made and their success verified at Yale University in the Osborn Zoological Laboratory. Donald H. Barron, who conducted the experiments, reported them to the anatomists.

WHEN FOOD SOURS

ABOUT two hours after eating many people suffer from sour stomachs. They call it indigestion. It means that the stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. There is excess acid. The way to correct it is with an alkali, which neutralizes many times its volume in acid.

The right way is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia—just a tasteless dose in water. It is pleasant, efficient and harmless. Results come almost instantly. It is the approved method. You will never use another when you know.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for correcting excess acids. 50c a bottle—a safe drug store.

The ideal denture for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia, a superior tooth-paste that safeguards against acid-mouth. (Made in Canada.)

"Gravelled" Roads.

The motor party which left Stony Plain Friday evening with the intention of going up to Onoway and witnessing the boxing bouts there that night, met with a disappointing experience, as after turning onto the Carvel road from the Highway and proceeding about a mile, their car became embedded in the mud. Thru the efforts of Mr Steve Steycly with his team of husky Clydes the motor party's car was hauled back to the Highway and the trip cancelled.

When the contractor finished the Carvel road it was called a "Graveled Highway." Friday night it was re-named by the party in one of the autos bogged on this "high-way."

Saturday's U. F. A. Meeting.

A large and enthusiastic gathering of supporters of the Brownlee government assembled in Moose hall Saturday afternoon. The hall was filled long before the advertised hour for opening the meeting, and standing room only was the order when the meeting opened at 3 p.m.

The chair was taken by Mr. W M Washburn, ex-M.L.A., who announced as the first speaker the Hon J F Lymburn, the attorney-general. Mr. Lymburn spoke at some length, in defence of the Government of which he is a member, and showed how the expenses of the Government which have been complained of, are much less than formerly.

The next speaker up was the Member for this Constituency, Mr Donald MacLeod; and he was followed on the rostrum by Mr George Bevington; the latter speaking until the arrival of the Hon J E Brownlee, the Premier of Alberta, who had been detained at his office on important business.

Among the other subjects dealt with and explained by the Premier was that of the question of a moratorium for Alberta, a matter which had been introduced into the Legislature by an Independent member. This was a proposed measure to provide relief for farmers. The Premier claimed that the adoption of this moratorium would double Alberta's unemployment problem; and asserted that the proposal would destroy present sources of credit. He declared it would mean that the Government would have to shoulder burdens now carried by the banks. This relief would have been of greater assistance a year ago than at the present time, he added.

At the close of his address Mr Brownlee was asked, and answered, a number of questions.
Stony district and the surrounding districts were well represented—the big majority coming in on horse drawn vehicles.

Hansen's Corners.

Quite a number of residents of the Corners attended the big U. F. A. meeting on Sat. at Stony.

Spring and the Crows arrived in this district at about the same time—the latter coming in mass formation.

Big Dan has the Indians from the Duffield reserve engaged in clearing land.

Mrs Hasse, of this district, has a baby girl at Grandpa Ellis'.

Butter vs. Axle Grease.

A Hansen Corner farmer reported to have said that, his spring, he will use dairy butter to grease his farm implements, instead of paying 30c lb. for axle grease. Finding that the butter is equally effective as a lubricant as the axle grease he formerly purchased, he will be putting the butter to good use.

Mail Order Patron's Annoying Experience.

The story is being told of the lady who had a mortifying experience a short time ago with a mail order house. It appears that the lady ordered an evening gown, but as they were out of that garment, a new clerk told the lady a nightgown instead.

STRAWBERRY PLANTS!

Why pay $3 to $4 per 100 for Strawberry Plants when you can get them delivered for $1.50? The Senator Dunlops are heavy producers, guaranteed 100 p.c. to live and will not frost-kill in winter.
